Polisan Holding's Dividend Policy is subject to the conditions in the national, global economy, and capital markets; and long-term strategies, capital requirements, cash and profitability expectations as well as investment and financing policies of the Holding's subsidiaries and affiliates in regards to their operations. The Board of Directors takes a decision for dividend distribution each year to submit for the approval of the General Assembly.

Polisan Holding may distribute cash dividend and/or bonus shares while evaluating share buyback under the above conditions and within the context of the related regulations to create more value for its shareholders.

As arranged under the Article 30 of the Polisan Holding's Articles of Associations, the determination and distribution of the dividend is as follows:

The net profit shown on the annual balance sheet, which is the remaining balance from the net sales as of the end of the fiscal year minus general expenses and various depreciation mandatory to be paid and amounts to be set aside by the Company, and all taxes payable by the Company's legal entity, will be allocated and distributed as respectively shown below once deducted from the previous year's losses (if any):

First Legal Reserve Fund:

- a) 5% is set aside as legal reserve fund.

First Dividend:

- b) Any donation granted during the relevant fiscal year is added to the remaining balance and the first dividend is calculated in accordance with the ratios and amounts that were defined by the Capital Markets Board.
- c) After the deduction of these specified above, the General Assembly is entitled to decide the distribution of the dividends to the members of the Board of Directors, officers and other employees, owners of the dividend/founding dividend shares, privileged shareholders, foundations of various purposes and similar persons and/or entities.

Second Dividend:

- d) The General Assembly is authorized to fully or partially distribute the remaining amount after the deduction of the amounts referred to in sub-paragraphs (a), (b), (c) as second dividend or to set aside as reserve funds.

Second Legal Reserve Fund:

- e) Of the total amount that was decided to be distributed to shareholders and other participating persons, a dividend share in the amount of 5% of the paid in capital is deducted and 1/10 of the remainder is allocated as Second Legal Reserve Fund as per the Turkish Commercial Code's Article 466, Paragraph 2, Clause 3.

Unless all reserves required by law are set aside and the first dividend determined for the shareholders and cash and/or share dividends determined for the owners of the non-voting shares are distributed as per the Articles of Association; it cannot be resolved to set aside other reserve funds, to transfer profit to the next
